

Precision (Bergman)

BE 15

- « This type of conflict arises when two simple elements or attributes are mapped and their values are represented using different precision.
»

For Example :

