

Naming - Homonyms (Bergman)

BE
21

- « This type of conflict arises when a term is used to refer to different real-world objects or concepts. »

- « Homonym conflicts can be detected by considering the corresponding paths from the root to the nodes containing the same values.»