

Conceptual heterogeneity (Euzenat)

- Difference in perspective : « also called difference occurs when two ontologies describe the same domain, at the same level of detail, but from a different perspective. This occurs for maps with different purposes: a political map and a geological map do not display the same objects. »

EU
05