

Terminological heterogeneity (Euzenat)

- « Terminological heterogeneity occurs due to variations in names when referring to the same entities in different ontologies. »
- « This may be caused by the use of different natural languages, e.g., Paper vs. Artículo, different technical sublanguages, e.g., Paper vs. Memo, or the use of synonyms, e.g., Paper vs. Article. »

EU
02