

Conceptual heterogeneity (Euzenat)

EU
03

- « Conceptual heterogeneity stands for the differences in modelling the same domain of interest »
- Difference in coverage : « occurs when two ontologies describe different, possibly overlapping, domains at the same level of detail and from a unique perspective. This is obviously the case for two partially overlapping geographic maps. »