EU 04

- Difference in granularity : « occurs when two ontologies describe the same domain from the same perspective but at different levels of detail. This applies to geographic maps with different scales, e.g., one displays buildings, while another depicts whole cities as points. »

Ontology matching
J Euzenat, P Shvaiko - 2007 - Springer